Culinary delights at the highest level

Guests are treated to culinary delights of the highest level at the EDELWEISS Mountain Cuisine. The use of regional products is given the highest priority and guests can choose between a regional, vegetarian and international menu in the evening.

The two toques awarded Sirloin Grill & Dine steak restaurant offers dishes straight from the grill in the open show kitchen. Here, enjoyment begins with carefully selected ingredients. Many of them come from our own butcher's shop or from regional farmers we appreciate personally. So we know exactly where our products come from - and you can taste the difference.

The Asian cuisine line Sakura and the in-house sushi bar also make gourmet hearts beat faster. Dream dishes from the Far East and delicious fresh sushi creations are prepared here every day.

Wine lovers will get their money's worth in the "Kork & Gloria". With a selection of over 1,500 wines and an adjoining wine cellar housing more than 30,000 bottles from renowned wineries from all over the world, it is a true El Dorado for connoisseurs.
